WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

High pressure offshore will maintain dry and cooler weather for most of the forecast area through Wednesday. An upper trough will bring a few showers near the Oregon border on Wednesday.

San Francisco Weather:

Today and tomorrow the forecast area will have cooler temperatures along with locally breezy conditions. A dry system will drop down for the second half of the week leaving the area with cooler than normal temperatures.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Sacramento Weather:

Today conditions will be dry with cooler temperatures as the Delta breeze develops. The forecast area will have breezy afternoon and evening valley winds, and gusty winds over ridge tops for the next couple of days.

Hanford Weather:

Low pressure will pass to the north of the region today through Thursday bringing a cooling westerly flow pattern. By late in the week, a secondary low will form over California for additional cooling and an outside threat of showers over the Sierra.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

Today, high pressure will continue the warm temperatures for the forecast area. Overnight low clouds will invade the coast and some coastal valleys this week. A weak trough of low pressure will bring a cooling trend midweek through the end of the week and continue the cool temperatures through the weekend.

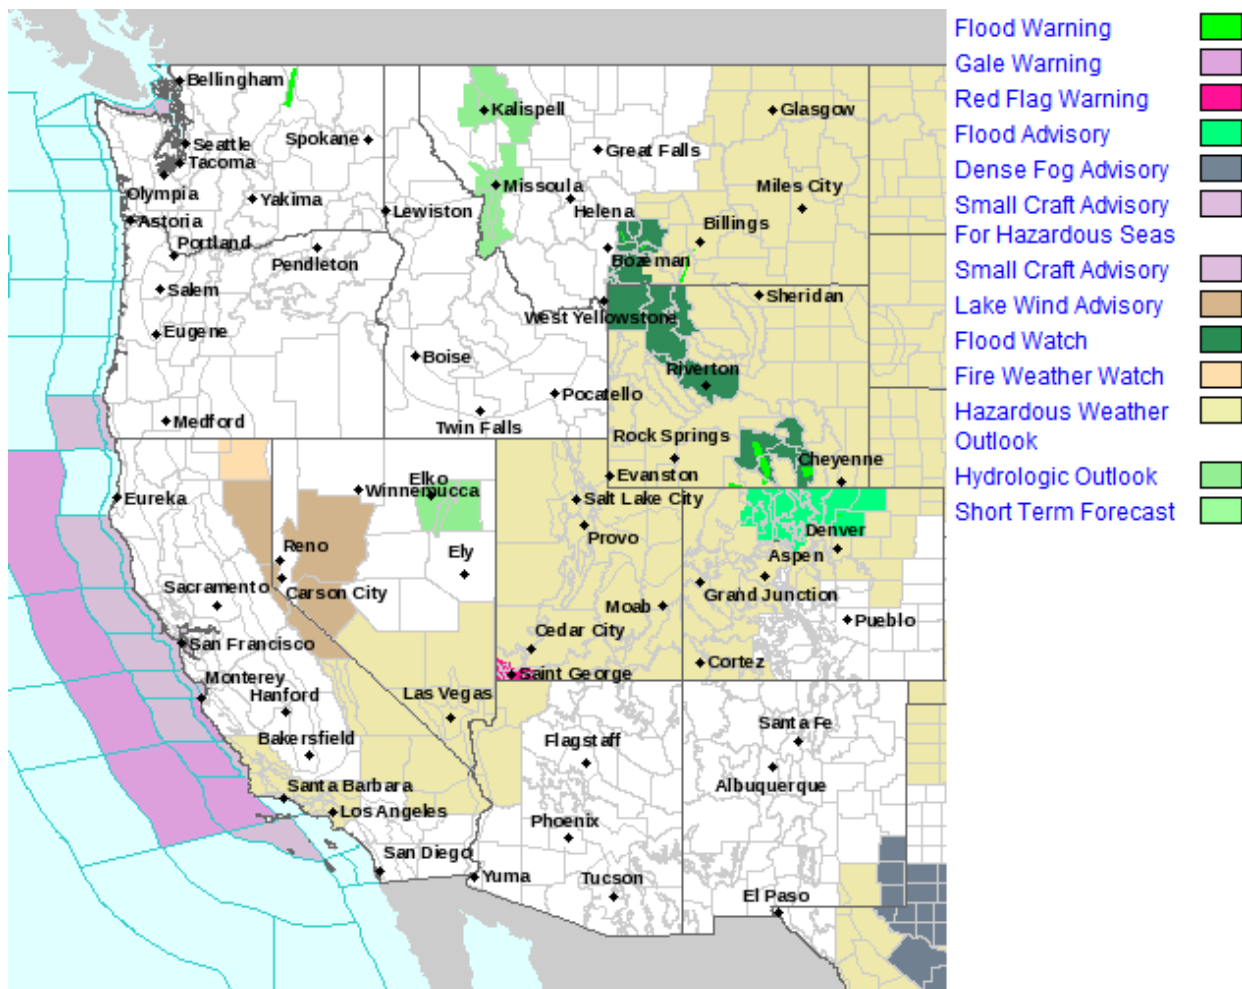

Extreme Southwestern California Including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

A low pressure system will develop near the West Coast, strengthen next weekend, and then weaken early next week. This will bring a cooling trend through Sunday followed by slow warming. Onshore flow will bring locally gusty west winds to the mountains and deserts each late afternoon through late evening. The marine layer will gradually deepen into the inland valleys through Saturday, then onto the lower coastal mountain slopes for Sunday.

Southeast California Weather:

A strong high pressure system will build over the region through Wednesday providing some of the hottest afternoon temperatures so far this year. On Thursday and Friday, a series of Pacific weather system will move onshore resulting in a few degrees of cooling. Clear skies and above normal temperatures will return Saturday and Sunday.

CAL OES ACTIVATIONS

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- The SOC is activated at Level 2 in support of the Drought State of Emergency from 0800-1700 hours daily.
- The Inland REOC is activated at Level 2 from 0800-1700 Monday through Friday or as needed.
- The Southern REOC is activated at Level 1.
- The Santa Barbara County OA EOC is activated at Level 2 to be handled by the duty officer for the purpose of monitoring activities and gaining situational awareness. The operational period is 0800-1700 hours.

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

Situational Summary

On January 17, 2014 Governor Edmund G. Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for drought conditions. The State Operation Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities. The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue without substantial rainfall, severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State over the next few months. Negative economic impacts will also result.

*As our state's rainy season comes to an end, it is highly unlikely that precipitation totals will increase significantly. This winter's below average rain and snowfall worsens conditions in this third straight dry year.

The drought could result in severe impacts to the municipal water supplies, wells, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities for several months. The SOC continues to be activated to monitor the situation statewide, and support regional and local operational areas.

- The Taskforce continues to meet regularly to take actions that conserve water and coordinate state response to the drought.
- The final manual snowpack survey of the season was conducted on Thursday (May 1) and showed California snowpack at 18% of normal.
- DWR has announced that water essential for health and safety will be delivered through the state water project. The current State Water Project Allocation is 5%.
- Cal OES continues to gather drought-related costs from state agencies and local governments.
